

The Town of Sodus Historical Society Presents Parker Maybe and “Gone Graving”

Thursday, April 10, 2025
7:00 p.m.
Sodus Presbyterian Church
31 W. Main St.
(in the dining hall)

Parker is a sophomore at North Rose-Wolcott High School and the son of former Rose Town Historian Melanie Maybe. He has long been interested in cemeteries and local history. He spends countless hours cleaning and repairing headstones in the towns of Rose and Butler and in doing research on some of the people. Parker would like to get more young people interested in preserving local history.
